Kyle Lawrence

ADP

Policy Director, Unemployment Insurance Wage & Tax Reporting Issues

Kyle Lawrence has been a Government Affairs Director at ADP since 2024. He is responsible for collaborating with government agencies on regulatory, policy, and technology matters for state income tax withholding, unemployment insurance (UI), and paid family & medical leave programs. Prior to joining ADP, Kyle had 20 years of payroll tax and UI experience with the New York State Department of Labor, Ernst & Young, and Amazon.com. Kyle has an MBA from the City University of Seattle. He is a Certified Payroll Professional and Enrolled Agent. Kyle works and resides in Massachusetts.