Policy Director, State Locals Payroll Tax Reporting

PJ serves as Policy Director, specializing in State Locals Payroll Tax Reporting for the National Payroll Reporting Consortium.

PJ began her career journey in the payroll industry. She is a seasoned payroll tax compliance expert with over eight years of experience, having delved into the intricacies of payroll tax regulations of state withholding tax, state unemployment tax and state locals' taxes since 2015.

PJ is known for her proactive approach to spearheading the State Locals Subcommittee to address necessity for the consortium. Through this committee, she forms crucial partnerships with local government agencies to create transparency, streamline and align reporting processes, and surface best practices for both parties. In her capacity as Policy Director for National Payroll Reporting Consortium, PJ regularly meets with the states local agencies and their software vendors to discuss the needs of the agency, the operational processes of the NPRC members, and craft a position to unite both parties on an approach that serves all parties.
